PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court on 10/10/2013.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

Mandatory Condition # 3: The offender shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

Supporting Evidence: Sarah X. Weiland was arrested on October 9, 2013, for possession of a controlled substance (methamphetamine). According to a police report dated October 9, 2013, Sarah X. Weiland was searched and found to be in possession of a small vial of white crystalline substance, which field tested positive for methamphetamine. After removing Ms. Weiland from the police vehicle at the Spokane County Jail for booking, police searched said vehicle and found 2 small baggies that had been tucked down the crack of the seat, which field tested positive for methamphetamine. Police vehicle seats are searched after an offender is removed; therefore, police know when the next person enters the same seat, it is clear of any contraband.
